We can help you understand the process

We can help you understand the process involved in arranging a funeral, burial, cremation or memorial and explain the services offered at our two cemeteries.

For further information or clarification, contact our professional and dedicated team who are able to offer sympathetic help to you or in liaison with your chosen funeral director.

You can hold the funeral, burial, cremation or memorial with us

You may like to consider holding the funeral, burial, cremation or memorial with us at one of our cemeteries.

- Kingston Cemetery and Crematorium at Bonner Hill Road, KT1 3EZ
- Surbiton Cemetery at Lower Marsh Lane, KT1 3BN

With beautiful memorial gardens and an abundance of wildlife, each cemetery provides a serene and dignified setting for you to say goodbye to a loved one. Both the crematorium and cemeteries have a chapel for services, various grave types and memorial choices.

Visiting times for Kingston and Surbiton Cemeteries

Monday to Friday

- January, November and December - 9am - 4pm
- February and October - 9am - 5pm
- March, April and September - 9am - 6pm
- May, June, July and August - 9am - 7pm

Following a health and safety inspection of the chapel at Kingston Cemetery, we have had to extend the current fenced Chapel exclusion zone to ensure the safety of visitors and staff. Regrettably, this means that some memorials near the chapel will not be accessible. We are conscious of the need for you to tend the grave of your loved ones so our Bereavement Team will be pleased to place flowers, remove old flowers and tidy your grave for you throughout the period you are unable to access the area yourself.

When visiting

Our gardeners take care to maintain the grounds and present a peaceful space for everyone. Please help us to keep the grounds in order by removing wrappers from cut flowers placed in the memorial gardens, not placing your own plants or vases unless permitted within a purchased grave space and putting litter in the bins provided.
